

6516207662.txt

As a huge supporter to XM radio, I oppose to any limitations applied to XM radio. It is a paid subscription and should not be subject to these attacks from public radio stations and the NAB. Clearly they are concerned about the competition and should improve their product instead of attacking others. Isn't this the American way? I urge you not to fall victim to such nonsense.